SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Students:

To you, the youth of today, will soon go the difficult task of overcoming the many mistakes of your elders, in addition to grappling with a host of new economic and social problems in our increasingly complex society.

The stimulation from your imaginative minds, seasoned and sobered by your cultural heritage, justifies the responsibility that you are to assume; for the world's main hope for peace and progress lies in the continuous flow of creative youth--partially free from the prejudices of the past.

I have profound faith that you, if given proper training, will shoulder the responsibility well, and I pledge to help in your preparation to the best of my ability.

Sincerely yours,

C. M. Nalls

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Dear Students:

At this, the end of another spring semester, I want to express my thanks to you for a good school year, for it is you, the students of Llano High School, who have made it a success.

It is my desire that when you pick up this issue of The Mountaineer in future years and think back through the events recorded herein that they will all be pleasant thoughts.

To you, I wish happiness and success in this life.

Sincerely,

James E. Moore
