I Have Seen Death

I have often wondered How life can be
So lasting and rewarding.
I have seen Death
Take the best in life.
Among these was Mike Avett.

Total silence reigned.
Llano High School
Had never looked so glum.
The students attended classes,
Although they all seemed to be
In an unbelievable daze.
The hearts of many
Ached with sorrow and regret
Sorrow for his parents,
Regret for the existence of accidents.

Mike Avett lived each day
To its fullest,
Everyday was a new challenge,
And everyone was his friend.
It must have happened because
God needed him
For a special reason.
One with Mike's qualities
Would well adorn God's realm.
—Rose Mary Luera

Jewel Missing From Llano Crown As Charles Neal Retires . . .

As Charlie retired from his janitorial duties at the High School, a chapter of love, understanding, and work beyond the call of duty came to an end. The school presented him with a piece of luggage and some other assorted gifts from close friends.

Thanks for all the great things you've done for our school Charlie, we will all miss you dearly.

Homecoming Explodes at L.H.S.

May I have this dance?

Queen Becky and her Court.

Krueger adds air of statesmanship to festivities.

Krueger presents the bouquet to Lynda Lange.

Shake, Shake, Shake, Your Booty.

Where's the party?

The homecoming of 77-78 was Friday, September 23. We won the football game.

There were 15 nominees. We had Representative Krueger present the flowers to the queen and her court. The Homecoming Queen was Becky Murchison. The Court was made up of a Princess who was Lynda Lange and a Duchess who was Jena Jones.

ADMINISTRATION
and FACULTY

Administration Provides the Education

Through lots of hard work and determination, Supt. Rhodes and Principal Simpson have made L.H.S. a better high school and have created a prouder student body. Besides being behind the desk, they often are found at outside activities backing our school all the way. We congratulate you on the leadership you have given our students.

for Tomorrow's Leaders

CENTRAL OFFICE SECRETARIES

Cynthia Bower, Joan Myers, Wilma Lindsay.

High School Secretary
Ms. Pam Stewart

We all know Ms. Stewart as the lady who puts up with all the office commotion. She gets all the excuses, all the tardies, all the headaches, all the complaints—yet she holds up through all. We give you our congratulations and sympathy for your treacherous duty.

The Decision Makers . . .

The office aides for the 1978 year were: Jana Blessing, Leigh Ingram, Robin Halliburton, Kathie King, Lorrie Curtis, Kathy Talley, Linda Grandstaff, and Kathy Myers. We answered the phone, gave out aspirins, made change, and tried to help out whenever possible.

LLANO SCHOOL BOARD

ORGANIZATIONS

Student Council Takes on Problems of School

The Student Council represents the school body as a whole. It is composed of elected officers, along with representatives from each class. This year the members checked parking permits and sold carnations. They worked hard to sponsor the Valentine and Homecoming dances.

National Honor Society—Pyramid Power

To become a member of National Honor Society, one must maintain a 90 average and exhibit such characteristics as character, service, leadership, and scholarship. The high school faculty votes for membership in the society.

Senior Future Homemakers

Senior FHA worked hard this year in trying to help others. With Donna Chism as this year's president the club had projects which included taking magazines and visiting those at the nursing home. We are looking forward to having Donna as president again next year and we are sure she will do as fine a job as she has shown us that she can do.

Pres. J. Jones, 1st V.P. L. Watkins, 2nd V.P. K. Bradshaw, 3rd V.P. T. Phillips, 4th V.P. D. Hagemann, 5th V.P. L. Curtis, Treas. M. Stephenson, Sec. C. Mazy, Hist. L. Otto, Parl. D. Stephenson, Sponsor—Mrs. Russell.

L.H.S. Annual Staff

This year's annual staff worked hard to try to get what you, the student body, wanted in your annual. Many problems arose, but we kept on going. Mr. Graves was our sponsor until he left Llano High School. We finally received a sponsor who stayed with us for the rest of the year which was Mr. Steadtler. Kathy Myers was this year's editor, and she worked with Gary Delz, Cindy Taylor, Justine Russell, Libby Handly, Lisa Nobles, Katrina Franklin, Janet Beasley, Brenda Rushing, Laurie Otto, and Brenda Shipp. We also want to thank all those who gave us their help and support along the way.
