JACKETLAND

Llano High School
Llano, Texas

Proudly Presenting

The building:
Old, but friendly;
Ugly, but strong;
molded by people,
dreams, and . . .
reality.

The students: YOUTH. . . striving, searching for knowledge and fame.

The teacher: A wise look;
a wealth of knowledge. . .
the steadfast light. . .
a friend indeed.

Llano High School!

The game: Hustle. . .the cheer of the crowd. . .tears shed. . .blood lost. . .Victory!

The dance: A pretty dress. . .
a sigh. . .a look. . .a
laugh.

The going home. . .until tomorrow.

Dedication

We, the annual staff, proudly dedicate 1967 Jacketland to Coach Weldon Seeliger. Coach Seeliger has played an important role in high school activities during three years in Llano, and this is one way of showing our appreciation. He has made a large contribution not only to the football team, but also to the entire student body. He is a social studies teacher and class sponsor.

Coach Seeliger studied at Texas A., and where he received his Bachelor of Science degree. He is married, and he and his wife have one son, Timmy.

Thank you, Coach, for the interest you have shown in the students of Llano High School.

ADMINISTRATION . . . . .

"A teacher affects eternity; he can never tell where his influence stops."

Henry Brooks Adams

CLASSES . . . . .

"I am the people--the mob--the crowd--the mass. Do you know that all the great work of the world is done through me?"

Carl Sandburg

HONORS . . . . .

"Knowledge may give weight, but accomplishments give luster. . ."

Philip Dormer Stanhope

ORGANIZATIONS. . .

"The grand essentials to happiness in this life are something to do, something to love, and something to hope for."

SPORTS . . . . .

"When the One Great Scorer comes to write against your name, He marks--not that you won or lost--but how you played the game."

Grantland Rice

ACTIVITIES . . . . .

"Oh for one hour of youthful joy!
Give back my twentieth spring!

I'd rather laugh, a bright-haired boy
Than reign a grey-beard king.

Oliver Wendell Holmes

ADS . . . . .

"It pays to advertise."

Llano High School is a very special school. It is one where friends can be made and kept for a lifetime, where the joy of life can be revealed to each person, where a student can get a favorable thrust into the highway of Life. This year the annual staff has tried to catch the feeling of this school and put it in this book--much the same as one might catch a firefly and place it in a jar. . . a moment of joy. . . a moment of truth.

The memories of high school are sweet ones, especially when a person looks back after he is grown. But memories grow dim, and so we find the purpose of having a yearbook. Our book is meant to set a spark to your memories and to bring them blazing back to you. This is what we attempt to do. We hope we succeed.

The 1966 football season was a thrilling one for the mighty Llano Yellowjackets and their fans. It came down to the final blow of the referees' whistle. We ended with a good record of 4 wins, 6 losses, and the satisfaction that our boys had always played fairly and with great determination. The Yellowjackets were in a position for 2nd place in district before the final game, and only with tremendous effort were the Coleman Bluecats able to squeak by with a 7-6 victory.

The student body of LHS would like to commend Coaches Seeliger, Gilbert, and Jones for their success in making the Jackets a good football team. To you, the Yellowjackets, we congratulate you on your great efforts and achievements. We all have gained a great deal by watching the fearless and resolute spirit of the Jackets.

ACTIVITIES

"Try to remember a kind

Three charming LHS'ers gave us the old school yell.

We welcomed the new, invigorated Spirit of '66.

Whether we preferred old or new, we had to agree that Ann had SPIRIT!

September was the beginning-- of an exciting school year, of different classes, new lockers, new teachers, new books. For some students it was the beginning of their high school career, for others it was the beginning of the end. Whatever September was to you, it was challenging and stimulating. We were all determined to make it the greatest year possible. And it was pretty great. Remember our tremendous pep rallies, the frenzied moments as our heroes in black and orange marched into the gym, Spirit Day, the heartbreaking seconds of our final game with Coleman. Don't forget mid-term exams and the pride felt by the entire school when our students and coaches brought back the UIL trophy. Remember the Junior Play and spring fever, finals and the sadness of a happy time-- graduation, 1967... remember...

of September . . .

Our bonfire was built of sticks and tires and hopes and battle cries and sweat and abducted city limit signs.

We prepared to send an unlucky antagonist from the frying pan into the fire.

It was ignited...

... and blazed gloriously with the spirit of LHS.

Deep in December it's nice

We gave recognition to our coaches and senior football players.

The band put us in the Yuletide mood on the last school day of 1966.

Mrs. Zerm's Spanish classes beautifully presented the story of Christmas.

Linda and Rod performed the Mexican Hat Dance enthusiastically.

Elginia demonstrated another spirited Latin dance.

The new year brought mid-term, the excitement of basketball, and everyone's friend-snow. Resolutions to study harder were forgotten by most with the increase of activities. Each class elected favorites and cast secret ballots for Mr. and Miss LHS and other top honorary positions, which were announced at the Valentine Dance. The junior class worried about their play, while seniors calculated the number of credits they needed to graduate . . . Everything was hectic and happy.

There were a few brave souls at the Valentine Dance.

CLASS FAVORITES:

. . . the fire of September . . .

Try to remember . . .

LHS's own A' Go Go girls.

The old auditorium reverberated with the sounds of "Pipeline."

UIL coaches proudly pose with our much deserved trophy.

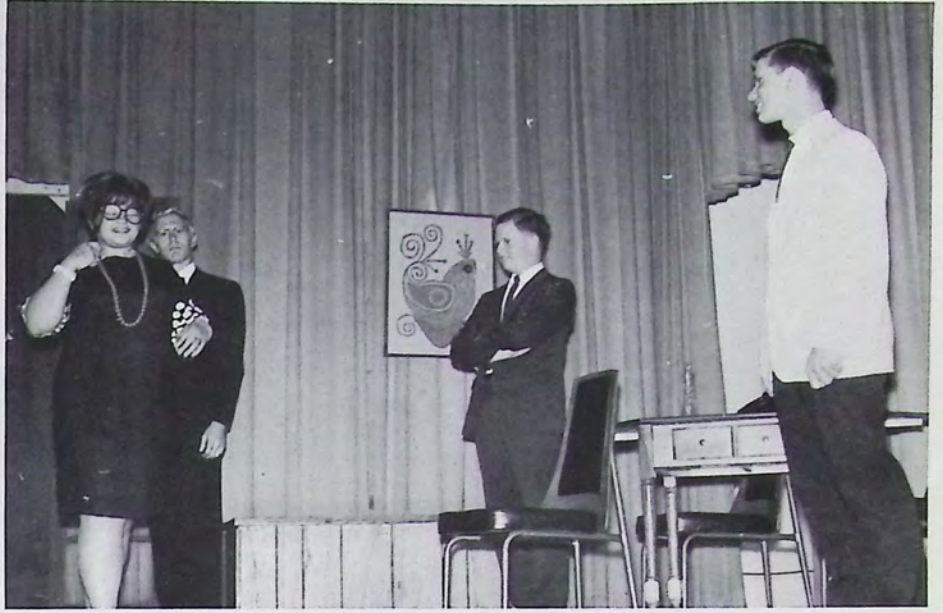

A folk group reminded us of "a cruel war a'waging."

Bobby McCall showed unusual interest in portraying Fidel Duran in "Sunday Costs Five Pesos."

David realizes that he is in a predicament. And how!

Beautiful decorations and a western band added to a lovely evening.

The juniors treated the seniors to "Moonlight and Roses."

. . . a kind of September . . .

Some strange hombres showed up on Hobo day.

One of these lovely ladies was heard to say: "We always gets our man."

Senior class entry Hohmann (far right), ridden by Inks, proved to be a winner.

We all learned that day "a little nonsense now and then is pleasant."

Remember September . . . remember each moment of the year . . .
 good and sad times . . .
 important and unimportant things . . .
 friends and rivals . . .
 study and play . . .
 . . . 1967 . . .

. . . and follow."
