The Senior Class of 1992

Senior Favorites

Corina Schwintz

1. How does it feel to finally be a senior? "Great! My senior year has been the best of all years. I've had the most fun, and I've learned more this year than any other year."
2. What do you plan to do after high school? "I plan to go to college in the fall and work this summer."
3. What do you think would be a few words of advice for future LHS graduates? "Make the most of your last year. Try your hardest at the end. Your senior year is the last chance for the best time of your life."

Michael Hein

1. How does it feel to finally be a senior? "It feels like I have accomplished something in life."
2. What do you plan to do after high school? "I'm going to join the Air Force."
3. What do you think would be a few words of advice for future LHS graduates? "Do what you have to do to get by, but have fun doing it."

Royce Owens

1. How does it feel to finally be a senior? "It feels great!"
2. What do you plan to do after high school? "I am going to college to study either Criminal Justice or Business Finance."
3. What do you think would be a few words of advice for future LHS graduates? "Study hard, but have a lot of fun. High school is something you will never forget, and the four years go by faster than you think."

Senior Class Song

"When You Put Your Heart In It"

We knew it was one in a million it was such a longshot but somehow we got here together and who knows what will happen if we keep getting better and we keep on believing.

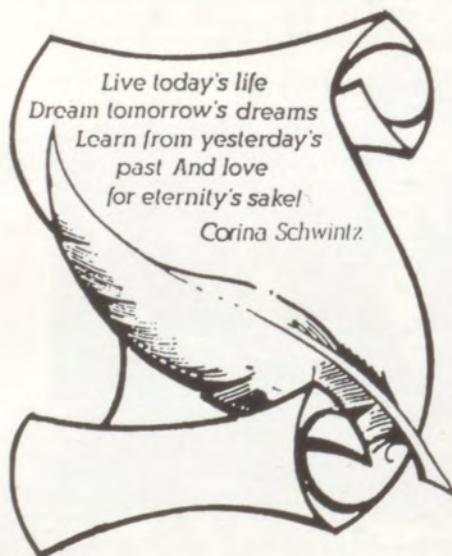

When you put your heart in it, it can take you anywhere; who's to say that we can't make it; it's the same dream that we share; when you put your heart in it, it can take you anywhere.

This road was so long and winding it was such a hard road, but we couldn't stop once we had started; we were always getting closer; suddenly it happened a chance in a lifetime; now we're going to take it we can make it.

When you put your heart in it, it can take you anywhere; who's to say that we can't make it; it's the same dream that we share; keep on believing, keep on believing.

When you put your heart in it, it can take you anywhere; who's to say that we can't make it, it's the same dream that we share; when you put your heart in it, it can take you anywhere.

We
The Class of 1992
are pleased to announce

Our Graduation

from

Llano High School

Friday evening, May twenty-ninth

eight o'clock

High School Auditorium

-Casey Mosier, Valedictorian

As I stand here before you on our graduation night and look at the faces in our class, I can reflect on the past years not only as a learning experience but a time for both happiness and sadness. New faces have been added to our group. It is not only through our own efforts but the efforts of others, parents, teachers, friends, and family that we have reached this point in our lives: Each of us being influenced by others.

As we face the future with many decisions to make, I am reminded of a story I heard. A father just home from a long day at work was sitting in his easy chair reading his newspaper. On the floor near his chair his young son was playing with a baseball and glove. He asked his dad to play with him. The father answered, "Son, I am too busy. I want to read my paper." The young boy did not give up, however. He kept pleading for the dad to play catch with him. The father did not want to tell the boy no. As he looked at the newspaper, he saw a picture of the world. Taking the page from his paper, he tore it into small pieces and handed it to the boy. He said, "Here, Son, put this picture of the world together and I will play catch with you. The boy ran to his room and his father returned to his paper. In a few minutes, the boy returned with his glove and ball and the page of the paper taped together. The father looked at the page and to his amazement the world was together in perfect order. The father couldn't believe it. His son was only five years old. He asked, "Son, how did you put together the map of the world? I will play catch with you, but first you must tell me how one so young can accomplish such a difficult task." The boy replied, "It was easy, Dad. On the back of the world was a little boy and girl. I put the boy and girl together and the world came together."

Many people have influenced the lives of this class and have played a major part in putting this group of young people's lives together. As a class we would like to thank each of you who have had a part in helping us explore truths, learn, and mature. As we leave here tonight, it is up to each of us to improve and keep our lives together.

I would like to close by sharing these thoughts with my classmates. When others are happy, be happy with them. If they are sad, share their sorrow. Work together and share successes. Do things in such a way that people can see you are honest clear through. By doing so, we will not only keep our own lives together, we will help put the world together.

Close-Up

In December, fifteen other Llano High school students and I traveled to Washington, D.C., with our teacher, Larry Leifeste, to learn about our government. Not only did we learn about government, but we learned about other people; we saw many sights, and gained many memories.

While sightseeing, we saw about 10 national monuments (including the Washington Monument, Jefferson Memorial, Vietnam Memorial, Lincoln Memorial, Franklin D. Roosevelt Monument, and a memorial to the seven astronauts who were killed in the Challenger explosion). We also saw the gravesites of Presidents Woodrow Wilson, John F. Kennedy, and William H. Taft. In addition to these we saw Ford's Theatre, the Eternal Flame, the National Archives, and Arlington National Cemetery.

Of all of these places we visited, I think I enjoyed Arlington National Cemetery the most. It had unbelievable numbers of graves of military personnel. It seemed unreal to be walking among the endless rows of headstones and memorials. We saw the graves of Audie Murphy (the most decorated soldier in America's History), Joe Louis (often know as "the Brown Bomber" of boxing), and Robert F. Kennedy, who may have changed the course of history had he not been assassinated and been elected President. This place was truly amazing.

On this trip we sat through seminars by officials on subjects like foreign policy, the media, and domestic issues. In these seminars the speakers gave their opinions on the topics and followed with a mock press conference while participants stood and asked direct questions to them.

In addition to learning about government and the city itself, we learned about other people. There were about 150 people involved in Close-Up. These were divided into workshops of about 20 people each. In these workshops we learned about differences in views from around the country on different topics, like abortion and civil rights. The environment that these people lived in greatly affected their views. Some were from San Francisco. Their views on gang violence and drug enforcement were often different from those of the Utah students, most of whom were Mormon. Basically, though, most teenagers are somewhat the same all over the country. All were interested in meeting new people and gaining new experiences.

My favorite person at Close-Up was my workshop director, Scott. He was easy to relate to and was always eager to teach us new things. He stressed that the most important thing in our workshops was our opinion. Throughout the week he gave us opportunities to express them to each other.

The most graphic memory I have is of the Changing of the Guards at the Tomb of The Unknown soldier in Arlington National Cemetery. The soldiers were sharp and exact about everything in their duty. This showed pure dedication and loyalty to the memorial of these "Unknown Soldiers." I felt great respect and admiration at this place.

Overall, I feel that this week at Close-Up was one of the greatest experiences of my life. It was a chance to learn about government, our nation's capital, other people, and especially myself. I learned that we live in the greatest nation on the planet Earth.

Essay by Jason Ward and printed in LLANO NEWS as representative of the experiences of the group.

Kelli Jo Miller

1. How does it feel knowing that next year you will be a senior? "It feels like I'm at the end of a long race and I'm sad that it's almost over. It seems the finish line is approaching faster than ever!"
2. What will be different about your senior year as compared to this year? "I want to make my last year a whirlwind of fabulous memories that I'll never forget!"
3. What are a few things for upcoming juniors to consider? "Time flies when you're having fun. Most people don't realize that until it's too late. Maximize every moment!"

Shane Emerson

1. How does it feel knowing that next year you will be a senior? "It gives me a feeling of confidence. I know that next will be the last and final year of my true youthful years and that I must make the best of it."
2. What will be different about your senior year as compared to this year? "It's my first step toward a life career. I must start making very important decisions that will affect the rest of my life."
3. What are a few things for upcoming juniors to consider? "Do all you can but don't overdo it. You get out of life as much as you put in it."

Justin Amador

1. How does it feel knowing that next year you will be a senior? "It will be my last year, and I will only have one more year of being with my friends."
2. What will be different about your senior year as compared to this year? "I will be able to park on senior row and be closer to the front door."
3. What are a few things for upcoming juniors to consider? "Pass that TAAS test!"

The Llano Lady Jacket Cross Country team made its sixth consecutive appearance at the regional meet this year. The Lady Jackets finished as runner-up to state-ranked Fredericksburg at the District meet. Freshman Natalie Ashabranner was the only Lady Jacket selected to the All District team. Those selected to Academic All-District were: Jennifer Brewer, Kelli Miller, and Chrissy Conway.

Mike Leifeste was the only regional qualifier for the Cross Country team. He finished as the fourth individual runner at the district meet to earn a trip to regional. He was also the only All-District selection for the team. All-Academic selections include: Mike Leifeste, Casey Mosier, and Bill Tuckness.

EDITOR'S CLOSING

The theme of this year's book was "A Year of Celebration!" In each page, we tried to celebrate students and their many accomplishments. We planned each page so that each and every accomplishment be acknowledged and celebrated in its own special way.

I would like to give special thanks to a wonderful staff: April, Kevin, Cory, Robert, and Posie, who made this book a reality. Ya'll have been the best staff ever! Between April's "SOPHOMORE PAGES" and gluing everything to the ceiling, this has been one of the best years ever. I would also like to thank Mrs. Croker for her support throughout the year and the brownies.

To each and every student, we hope that you have enjoyed the book and that you will remember 1992 as "A Year of Celebration."

A YEAR OF CELEBRATION!

Camille Rude

SPONSOR'S THANKS

It's June 5, and we are ready to send off LHS' oldest organization book again (81st edition). Thanks staff, you are the greatest! Thanks for being so congenial and for putting up with this 'ole sponsor's regular "fits of worry" that we would not get the book finished on time. Somehow we finished — in spite of missing/blurry pictures, missing information, and countless other problems, and the last days seemed easier because you were here.

We owe countless thanks for assistance in making our job easier. Roses to the following: Mr. Tucker, courier of film and pictures; Mrs. T for help in finances; LHS Faculty — always patient during interruptions; Starmmy Davis, Wendy Enloe, and Cory Beal, couriers of film and pictures; James Price of Kingsland, Harry Kieke of Austin, and E. J. Gifford of "Llano News" for film processing, slides, and other picture help; Mrs. Larremore and Erik Aagaard took photos; Maintenance Crew for help setting up candy sales; Jason Ward, Close-Up article; Typing Classes for patience during deadlines; Mr. Hill, Sharla and Judy for aide, Darsi and Iline could always be counted on for help; "Llano News" — shared photos; Jamie Turner, Kevin Ulrich, J. P., Michelle G., K. Amador, W. Enloe, C. Parker, S. Almond, N. Dearing, Mrs. Waldrip for shared negatives or photos; Coach Dehnal for taking track photos; Mrs. Dortch for candy sales and other help; Bettie Berry for camera and computer; Kristi Tuckness for last-minute indexing, Matthew Aten for last, last minute aide; almost-two Steven Brownlee gave us smiles when needed; and finally, if we failed to mention you, please know that without your help, this book would not be as good as we are proud to present to you — LHS's "Year of Celebration."

Jimmie G. Croker, Sponsor
