CLASS OF 1999

Royce Lee Ahrllett

A little rhythm and a good stick go a long way, but there is no wrong way to stick it.

Kathrine Jean Barkley

One of the greatest pleasures in life is doing what people say you cannot do.

Olivia Nicole Lee Bauman

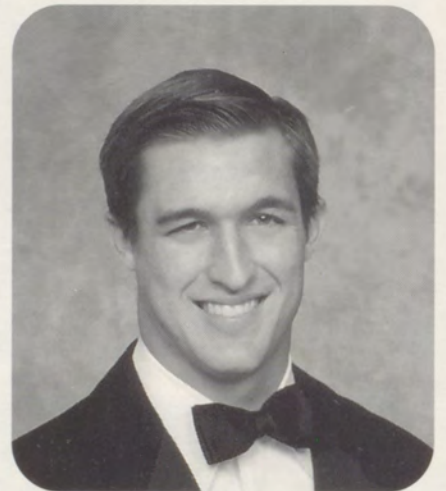

Shawn Joshua Becker

The aim of flattery is to soothe and encourage us by assuring us of the truth of an opinion we have already formed about ourselves.

Melissa Kaye Brooks

Life is like a bridge — cross over it, but don't establish yourself upon it.

David Owen Bush

What lies behind or ahead of you is not as important as what lies in you.

Casey Cheyenne Campbell

"Beloved Pan, and all ye other gods who haunt this place, give me beauty in the inward soul; and may the outward and inward be at one." -Socrates

Jose Tory Castelan

I have sought the end of childhood. Now it's time for me to destroy the gates of childhood that lead to adulthood and the future.

Jade Elizabeth Reynolds Chisum

Until you find something worth dying for, you're not really living.

Kayla Janiece Chitwood

Tabitha Nicole Choate

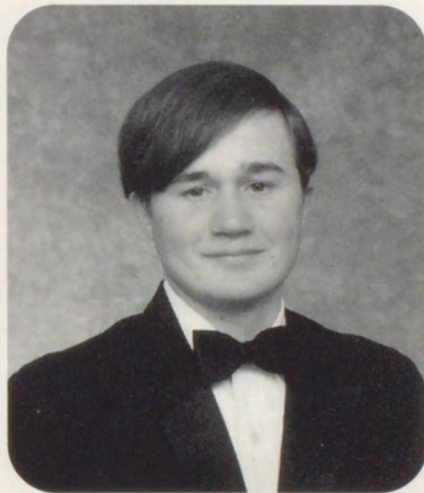

Amber Carisse Compton

Go ahead and live your life, but don't forget who gave you that life.

The most wasted day is that in which one has not laughed.

Teresa Joann Connally

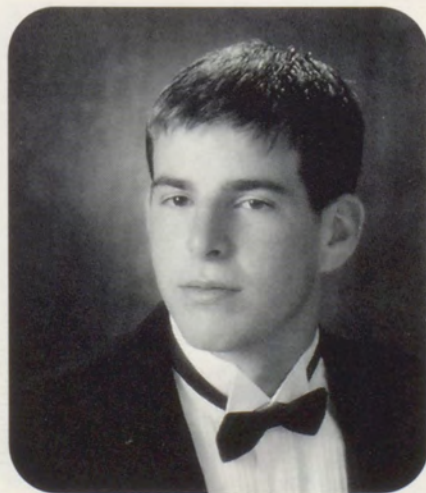

David Allen Daniels

Guy D. Freeman III

Flowers grow out of dark moments.

James Kevin Gatliff

Terri Jo Gibbs

Phillip Frank Gonzalez

To have a grievance is to have a purpose in life.

"It is important that man dreams, but it is perhaps equally important that he can laugh at his own dreams." -Lin Yutang

"If you can't see it, It wasn't meant for you to see. If you weren't born with it, It wasn't meant for you to be."

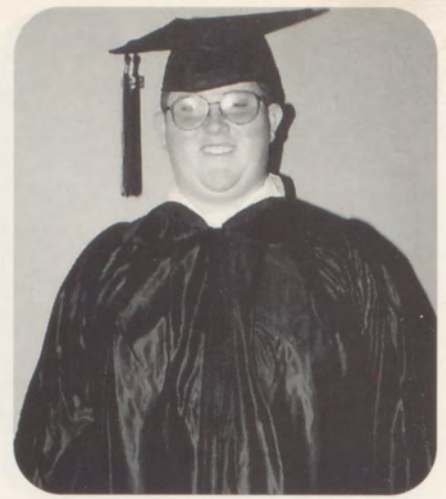

Michael Graham

"You have to experience the lows, before you can appreciate the highs."

Holly Diann Halliburton

I've learned that the important thing is not what others think of me, but what I think of me.

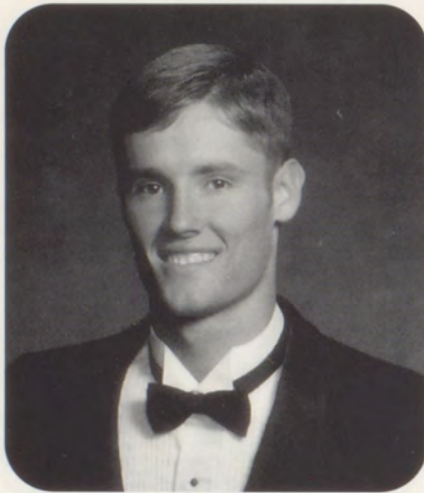

Stephen Wayne Hallmark

I hope that life isn't a big joke because if it is, I don't understand it.

Tiffany Lynn Hallmark

If people were minding their own business, they wouldn't be minding mine.

Christopher Ray Hamm

"Reach high, for stars lie hidden in your soul. Dream deep for every dream precedes the goal." -Pamela Vaull Starr

Danielle Renee Hawthorne

"Yesterday is but today's memory, and tomorrow is today's dream." -Jon Vedder

Michael Ray Hays

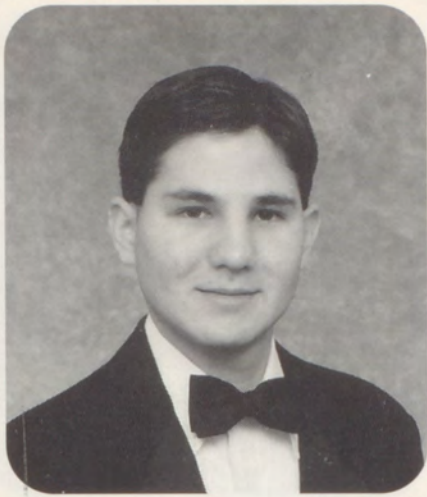

Rae-Lynn Hipp

You have to love what you learn, learn what you love, don't let this whole world get you down, or life will slip through your hands.

Kevin Lee Horton

The best safety is a rear-view mirror with a cop in it.

Tommy Wayne Hull

Debra Ellen Hunt

Joshua Jerome Inge

Adela Yvette Jimenez

There is no fear in love; but perfect love
casteth out fear.

Cecil Vonnie Leach

"The road to success is usually offroad"-
Tabitha Choate

Richard Justin Leeds

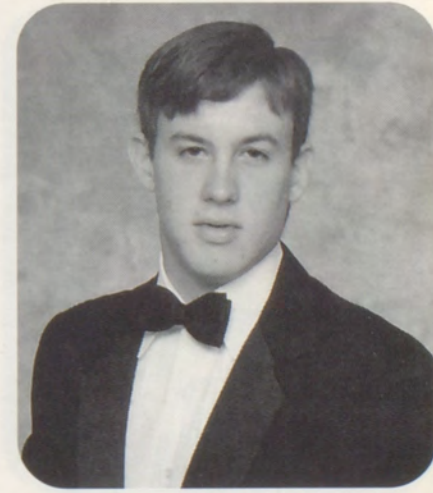

Gloria Suzanne Lewis

"And nothing is gonna put me out, stuck in the down and under; I'm down on the upside now"- Eddie Vedder

Laci Lee Ligon

Jason Ryan Linney

The really happy man is the one who can enjoy the scenery even when he has to take a detour.

Brandon Michael Lowe

"Life's a joke, so laugh while you can."

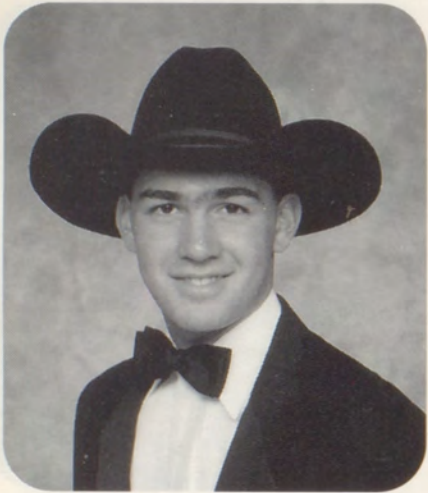

Sonya Martinez

"I've learned that if you worry about what other people think, the things you want to accomplish will never happen."

Bethany Jean Milam

"There is a time for departure even when there is no certain place to go." - NLS

Alexander Mario Muratori

I've learned that you shouldn't expect life's very best if you're not giving it your very best.

Jason Ryan Napolez

What will they do without me?

Jennifer Erin Nixon

"I'll ride the wave where it takes me." - Eddie Vedder

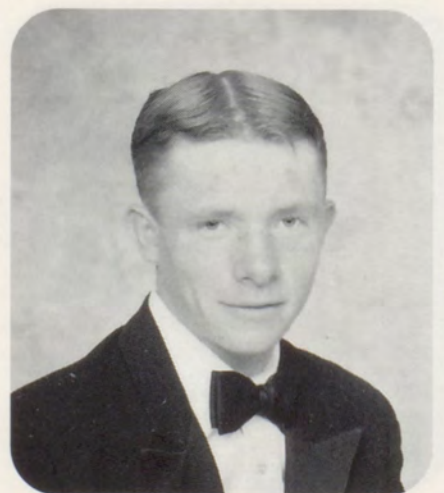

Casey Eugene Osbourn

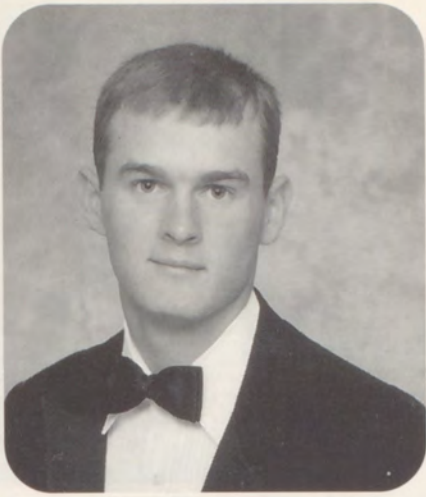

You don't need decorated words to make your meaning clear. Say it plain and save some breath for breathing.

David Waylon Perry

Rudolph Scott Peters

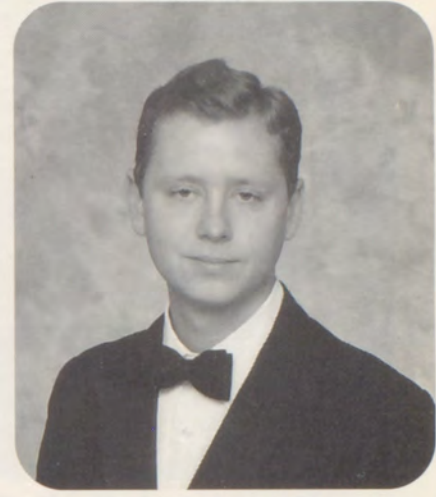

Dustin Gene Polk

I'm like a mosquito in a nudist colony. I know what I should do, but I don't know where to start.

Pamela Elizabeth Raschke

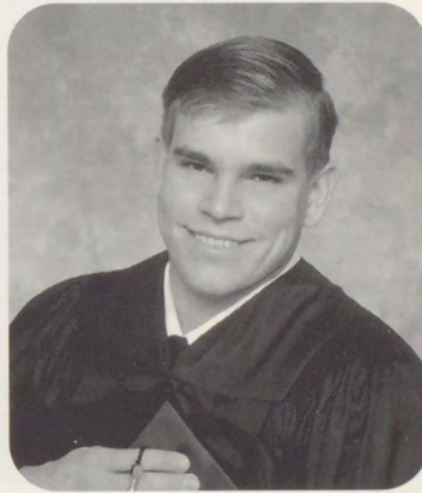

"Never settle for less than your dreams. Somewhere, Sometime, Someday, Somehow, you'll find them." -D.S.

Brandon Kyle Rash

Kendra Lynn Reynolds

Daniel Wayne Rhea

"It's not whether you fall down, it's whether you get back up." -Vince Lombardi

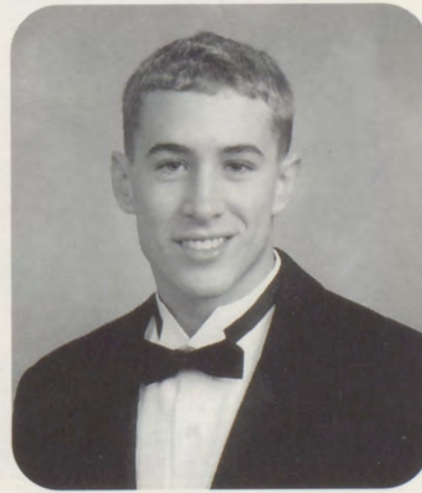

Jessica Lynn Robinson

"It is no happiness to live long, nor unhappiness to die soon; happy is he that hath lived long enough to die well." -Francis Quarles

Christopher Paul Rusche

If you want a place in the sun, you must leave the shade of the family tree.

John Chandler Schuessler

"Some men succeed because they are destined to, but most men because they are determined to." -Anonymous

Megan Kathryn Schuessler

"May those who love us, love us. And those who don't love us, may God turn their hearts. And if he doesn't turn their hearts, may he turn their ankles so we'll know them by their limping." -Gaelic Blessing

Joe David Lee Shuffield

No man's knowledge here can go beyond his experience.

Orin Authur Simpson

A change for the best by the best.

Anastacia Dawn Smith

"There's never enough time to do all the nothing you want." -Bill Watterson

Ida Sue Smith

"I don't know, I don't care, and it doesn't make any difference." -Jack Kerouac

Jarah Shaye Smith

To be successful in life, you must be able to listen to both your heart and your mind.

Nicole LeAnn Starkweather

"One is taught by experience to put a premium on those few people who can appreciate you for what you are." -Godwin

Brian Michael Strawn

Your walk talks and
Your talk walks, but
Your walk talks further than
Your talk walks.

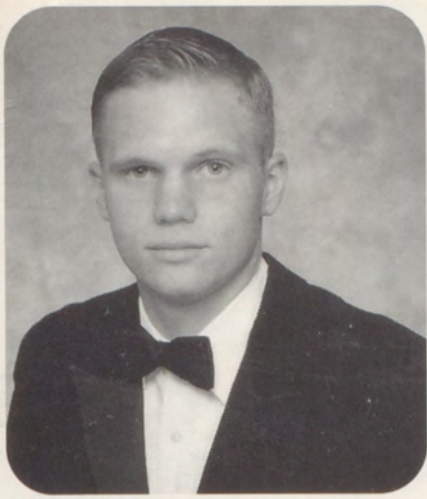

Theresa Marie Streeter

Reach for the stars!

Peggy Lee Swearingen

If it weren't for the last minute, a lot of things wouldn't get done.

Alton William Theiss

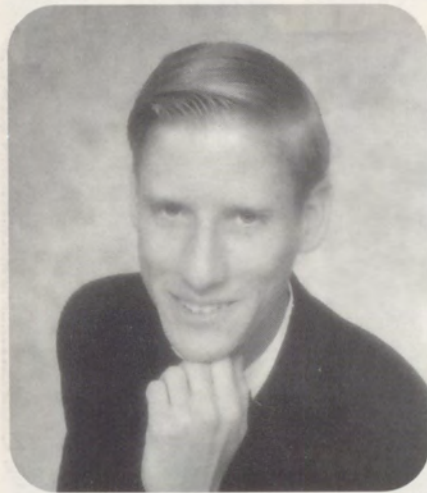

Justin Blaine Toeppich

If you're going to do something, take a little extra time and effort, and do it right the first time. Don't get stuck in a rut doing the same thing all your life.

Valedictory Address
Elizabeth Wolfe
May 21, 1999

*Honor and Dignity, Great Abund and Herlich Willmann in their *Apologues Erasmus While most of you might not understand what I just said, many of the people who attended the first LHS graduation in 1999 would have recognized that tongue twister as meaning, "Ladies and gentlemen, good evening and welcome to this momentous occasion." Many things have changed over the past hundred years, including the predominant language, but we still have valedictory addresses.

When I was thinking about what to present at this speech, I tried to remember what had been said at the first other graduations I have attended. I could remember only one given several years ago at my former graduation. The young lady who delivered that speech began by stating that the only thing she remembered about previous graduations speeches was that they were boring. She then proceeded to give one of the most boring speeches I have ever heard. I hope to avoid repeating her error.

We stand this evening at a historic point in time, perhaps even more historic than that of the first senior class of LHS 100 years ago. This class represents not only the end of a decade and of a century, but also the end of a millennium and, some might argue, an age. The lives we live after tonight may be remembered for hundreds of years to come. How is that for irony? As if graduation weren't stressful enough, some we have to face the pressure of a new millennium!

But seriously, when people at the close of the next century look back on this night in 1999, what will they remember about the seniors who are here? Will they remember us as the class that led the football team to the playoffs for the fifth year in a row and to state playoffs for the second time straight, proving once and for all that Llano's in-district "curse" was broken? Will they remember our vast improvements in most other areas of athletics? Will they remember us for leading the band to its twentieth consecutive Division I rating as marching? Will it be the year of the best One-Act plays to be produced here in Llano? Will the numerous accolades earned since I've reached senior year after year? Will they recall all the other acceptable accomplishments this class has helped LHS to achieve? Will they remember the individual champions in many areas, including academic, academic, and agricultural?

Will they remember the goofy things (Senior) LHS, every sophomore, made jokes, the many things we like to say and do? Will they remember who had a warped sense of humor and who liked to play practical jokes? Who thought school was the greatest thing since sliced bread and who spent a lot of time wearing stories about their favorite groups?

As good as those things are, we have to keep in mind that there is a lot more to life than high school. A hundred years from now, those who look back on us will not see only portions of the way we are now, but also the knowledge of how we turned out as adults, parents, and grandparents. What kinds of people will our grandkids tell their grandkids we were as they thumb through our vintage yearbooks?

I don't think any of the categories of memories those future generations will hold of us. They may come to one person's parents and say, "Yes, I know, Grandma always told me how that girl was in high school. But from what I remember, she didn't turn out well at all." Another line may bring up, "Oh, how. Never was any good, from what Mommy said. Always coming trouble in high school, and look what a year you got herself into in college. Worse than that McVay's folks, they are." Yet another picture might cry, "Fanny, Granddad never thought much of her in high school. But he ended up being one of the nicest people you could ever hope to meet. Successful, too. Daddy said he left her back a fortune." And, if ironic, there will be some people who will be remembered well, "Oh, yes. She always was a great one. He and me surprised us all when she went on to become a great memory. Grandma was always talking about what a great friend she was."

I don't think any of the categories of memories about this class. Not all of these memories will necessarily be true. We have the option of making our choices and making something good of our lives, or we can throw caution to the wind and take the consequences now and forever. What will it be? I challenge each of you—not just our fellow seniors, but all of you—to be the best that you can be. Do what is right. Leave behind good memories, just as those students in Laramie, CO, who died for their faith will be remembered for good. Like the people addressed by Martin Luther King, Jr., we have before us a choice between life and death, blessing or curse. Let us choose life, the one we and our descendants may live.

My final challenge to you this night from tonight, "Choose for yourselves the life whom ye will serve. . . . but so for me and my house, we will serve the LORD."

In growing, we have shared. In learning, we have found friendship. With pride, Llano High School Seniors announce their Commencement Exercises to be held on Friday, May 21, 1999, at 8:00 P. M. Llano High School Campus.

1999 Senior Class Song

THIS TIME OF YEAR

Well, there's a feeling on the air
Just like a Friday afternoon
Well, you can get there if you want,
Though it takes too long.

So, go on, let it be
If there's a feeling like there's something else
Somehow it's always understood
This time of year

So, go on, let it be
If there's a feeling coming over us,
Somehow it's always understood that way of us
Well, I know there's a reason to change
Well, I know there's a time for us

You think about the good times
And you live with all the bad
You can find it in the air,
Feeling right this time of year

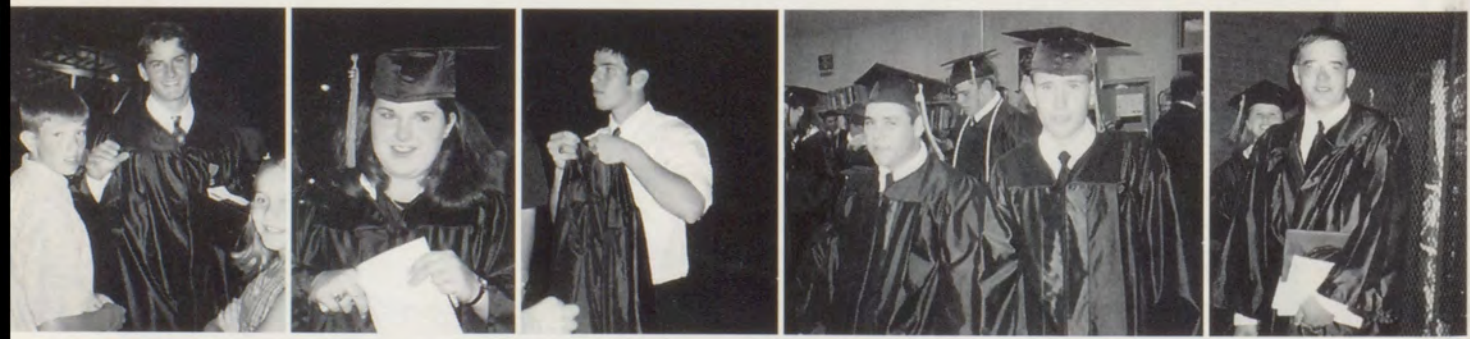

Well, there's a feeling on the air
Across the leaf-strewn field
Yeah, there's a first one on the road
And the girl you'd miss!

So, go on, let it be
If there's a feeling coming over us,
Somehow it's always understood that way of us
Well, I know there's a reason to change
Well, I know there's a time for us

Ω Additional Accomplishments Ω

Congratulations to Katie Barkley and Jordan Willmann for their great achievements at the State track meet. Katie placed 2nd in the 800 meter run. Jordan placed 2nd in 300 meter hurdles, 3rd in 100 meter hurdles, and 6th in high jump. The two as a team finished 8th in State.

The LHS Winter Guard placed 2nd in State in the Novice division to the song "Silent All These Years." Kellee Carney and Kyle McBrayer placed 1st at State in their rifle duet and Pattie Guthrie placed 3rd with her rifle solo.

The 4-H Rifle Team members Nathan Flint, James Theiss, Deah Moore, and Josh Calder placed 1st at the district meet. They are also State qualifiers.

The Boys' Varsity Baseball Team competed in a bi-district Playoff game against Devine.

The Class of 1999 is the 100th class to graduate from Llano High School.

Chanda Pate was crowned 1998 Llano Rodeo Queen.

Coach Ken Barington was selected to coach the south team in the 1999 High School All-Star game at the Ballpark in Arlington.

To Serve

FFA Officers: (L to R): Jennifer Winn-Advisor, Jordana Rode-Secretary, Chandler Schuessler-President, David Bush-Vice President, Alex Muratori-Reporter, Kim Feller-Treasurer, Ida Smith-Sentinel

FFA HISTORY:

The original idea for the organization was fostered after courses in Vocational Agriculture are established by the Smith-Hughes Vocational Education Act in 1917.

TODAY:

The National FFA Organization is a driving force in developing leadership in today's youth. The Organization motivates young people to make positive contributions to their homes, schools, community, and country.

EMBLEM:

The national FFA Emblem, consisting of five symbols, is representative of the history, goals and future of the organization. As a whole, the emblem covers the broad spectrum of FFA and Agriculture. Each element within the emblem has a unique significance; the cross-section of the ear of corn, the rise of the sun, the plow, the eagle, and the owl.

COLORS:

As the blue field of our nation's flag and the golden fields have ripened corn unify our country, the FFA colors of national blue and corn gold give unity of the organization.

Salute: The Pledge of Allegiance is the official salute of the FFA Organization

I would like to begin my closing by saying thanks to everyone that helped make this yearbook possible.

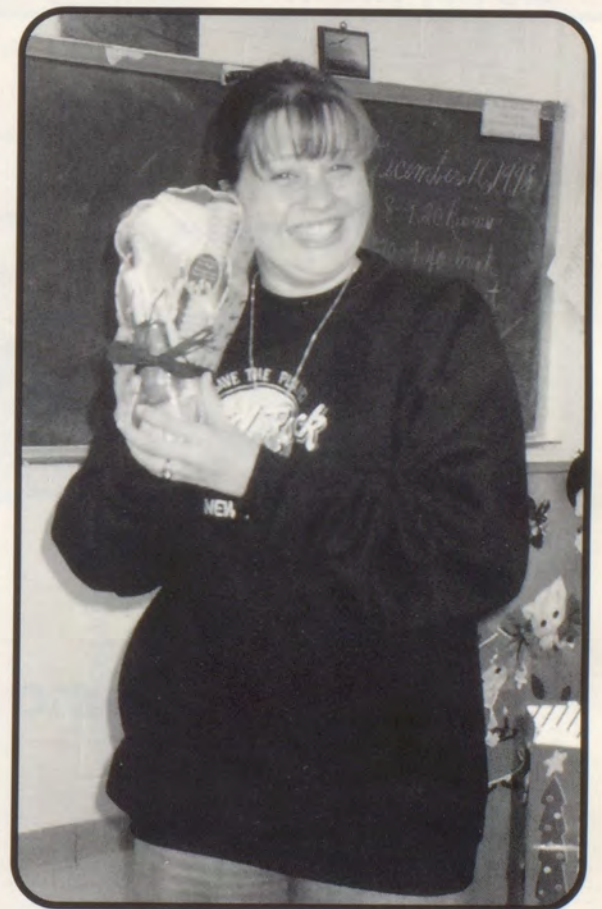

This year has been very hectic. Trying to make deadlines, sell books, sell raffle tickets, sell ribbons and buttons, sell ads, design layouts and keep our sanity has been a real challenge. Thank goodness for the mood candle! The staff this has been great.

Bethany, thank you for always keeping up with the important stuff. Everyone knows how dysfunctional the organizational area of my brain is. Deidre and Chaundra, thank you for coming up with all those great fund raiser ideas. Cheyenne, thank you for always dancing the "tango" and for the wonderful bat experience. Carl, thank you for just being Carl. I will miss our Thursday Dawson's discussions. Nathan you were a great gopher!! What will I do without you??? :) Kris, even though you didn't get to be very involved, I hope you enjoyed being on staff. Mrs. Champion, thank you for putting up with me and all of my "in the past" ideas. You have been a great sponsor. To the students and faculty at Llano High School, thank you all. You are the ones who helped keep us going. I hope that everyone enjoys the book.
